
EXERCISE: "If"

This is a "What Would Happen If . . ." exercise. What do you think would happen in each of these cases:

1. If fish could fly, then . . .
2. If every day was a holiday, then . . .
3. If cabbage heads could think, then . . .
4. If the ocean was made of pancake syrup, then . . .
5. If Wednesday came the day after Monday, then . . .

EXERCISE: "If-Then"

The weather report says: "If it rains tonight, it will be sunny tomorrow." Can you answer these questions about the weather report?

1. If it rains tonight, what will happen tomorrow?
2. If it rains tomorrow, does that mean it won't rain tonight?
3. If it doesn't rain tonight, do we know for sure what will happen tomorrow?

EXERCISE: "If" and "All"

All the children in the Wilson family have names beginning with the letter R: Robert, Richard, Rose, Rodney and Roberta.

Does that mean that, if someone's name begins with R, her last name will be Wilson?
