EXERCISE: Giving examples

Can you give examples of the following:

1. things that have skins, can be eaten, and aren't animals
2. seeds that come from flowers, and can be eaten
3. things that grow in the ground, and whose roots can be eaten
4. things that are manmade, have no motors, and fly
5. things that are printed, have covers, and contain no stories
6. things that are shaped like boxes and play music
7. people who fix things around the house
8. people who look for people who have broken the law
9. people who sell things
10. people who play games for a living
