

What do we think about philosophy?

How is it different?

What's the worst thing?

What do we learn?

Would it be good to do more?

What would make it better?

What's best?